

how to Love

dear d[♥]orri[♥]s,
My family keeps
telling me to be "realistic". What is considered
"realistic"?

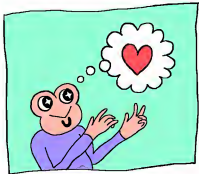

- Silent Dream

We all have an image of our perfect love

(like this but drawn better)

And we hope to find our own love that is perfect but in reality this is difficult to replicate

and even worse:
Love doesn't have a single author

and synchronising
is hard.

When people say
"be realistic"
they probably mean...

don't be annoyed when it isn't the way you expected instead:

celebrate it.
